Let's aim for September 21 – 24. I spoke with Steve Wharton and he suggests we fly to Durango and rent a car.

Yes, that will work great. I'm also working with Richard on beefing up our Tronox Red Mt Report, which will help us focus on what we need during the trip.

Would the week of Sept. 21 work? I think we should go ahead and get TA's in. Steve is out on vacation and I have not heard back from him.

Subject: Upper Animas/Red Mountain Site Visit

Hi Steve.

I wanted to check in with you about a possible site visit in September – perhaps the week of September 7 or 14. We are trying to pin down the locations of mining activities on the Red Mountain claims in anticipation of our funding request and should be ready by then. We have some travel money but who knows about next year so it would be best to try to do this this FY.
